

POSITIONS VACANT

Crisis and Transitional Accommodation Support Services Workers

2 x Casual Positions

Youth, Family & Community Connections Inc. is a local Not-For-Profit Community Organisation that provides a range of health and wellbeing services to young people, families and communities throughout the North West Coast of Tasmania.

We are seeking applications for the above positions, to work within our Crisis and Transitional Accommodation Support Services Teams providing casual relief to cover absences during annual and personal leave and also as required.

The positions are based in both Devonport and Burnie, and work across the North West Coast area, aiming to provide immediate emergency accommodation and transitional accommodation services and support to young people, aged 13-21, who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

The role involves -

- Intake and assessment
- Brief intervention
- Education and information
- Supported Referral
- Case management and case coordination
- Data collection and entry
- Working autonomously and as part of a team

The person we are looking for will be engaging, passionate and knowledgeable in the areas of Youth and Housing Support Services.

To qualify for an interview applicants must have as a minimum a Diploma in Community Services, or equivalent, or be well underway to completing same. Applicants must also have a current Driver's Licence AND a Working with Vulnerable People Registration, and be willing to undergo a pre-employment medical.

For the successful applicant the generous remuneration package includes:

- Salary in accordance with the Crisis Shelter Staff Current Enterprise Agreement and the Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award 2010, commencing at the equivalent to Level 5.
- Training and professional development provision
- Salary sacrifice

Further information about the position and an application package, including position description and selection criteria can be obtained by contacting the Team Leaders:
