Award Category Descriptions

High Five! Award

The High Five is a long-standing tradition when it comes to celebrating an achievement – no matter how large or small. This is your chance to give someone a public high five, so all of us can celebrate their achievement.

Examples:

- Someone who overcomes a fear such as public speaking
- Improved school attendance
- Someone learns a new skill

Quiet Achiever Award

We all know the person who always shows up, the person that you can always rely on. This award is designed to show appreciation to those who achieve but don't expect recognition or to be in the limelight.

Examples:

- Someone who is quietly supportive of others
- An achievement that hasn't been properly recognised
- Someone who demonstrates consistency without needing attention

The Great Mate Award

Friendship – this award is designed to highlight a mate who exemplifies the true spirit of friendship. The mate who is there through it all and has shown true support and encouragement to their peers.

Examples:

- An unlikely friendship
- Supporting someone through adversity
- Standing by someone overtime
